

News

15 Product Highlights From Feria Habitat Valencia 2019

September 25, 2019
By Mairi Beautyman

A tendency towards bold color and often outdoor friendly—that sums up many of the new product launches unveiled last week in Spain. Bigger than ever, the annual trade show Feria Habitat Valencia 2019 took place September 17-20, drawing more than 500 exhibit country's third-largest city.

Meanwhile, the local design industry basked in the glow of a major coup: On September 9, the World Design Organization named Valencia the World Design Capital for 2022, in tribute to its longstanding design legacy. That reputation for innovation was evident in the show's offerings—from a chair with a handy internal pocket to happy-go-lucky poufs, elegant outdoor seating, and chairs that hug. Here are 15 of our favorite finds.

Enter the Best of Year Awards by September 20

1. Isa Chair by Vicent Martínez for Capdell

Interior Design
Online Ed.
September 2019

3. Up Pouf by Mobboli

Photography courtesy of Mobboli.

A steel frame raises the cylindrical cushion that defines Up off the ground. Designed by the in-house team at Mobboli, the pouf or coffee table—depending on diameter—is conveniently stackable.

4. Alpe Collection by Yonoh Studio for Mobboli

Photography courtesy of Mobboli.

The Alpe collection of upholstered seating and poufs by Yonoh Studio for Mobboli references mountain peaks with the combined arched silhouettes of its backrest and frame.